Assistant Director for Policy Coordination
Attn: Mr. Carnal Office
Chief, Contact Division, OO

Sons of Dr. Nicholas POPPE

1. At the time this subject was last discussed, on or about 1 December 1949, you anticipated that the Christmas period would provide you with the opportunity to take the matter up personally with Mr. Carusi. In the event that matters have now progressed to embrace new and additional details, we should like to reemphasize our readiness to cooperate within our capabilities.

2. Contact Division has no authority to expend funds in an undertaking of this character. However, we can render certain services which might be useful, both here at headquarters and in our [ ] [ ] As to expenses involved in transporting the sons, in conversation some months ago, Dr. POPPE himself expressed his readiness to meet them. We continue in close contact with Dr. POPPE, and can transmit to him any information and instructions as to the supplying of such funds. When the arrival of the sons is imminent, we can also consult Dr. POPPE on how and where he wishes them to go, and arrange with our appropriate [ ] to meet them and assist them on their way. The earlier information we receive, the better will we be able to plan and execute our further moves.
